The historic, hope-filled opera

BRUNDIBÁR

Sunday, March 16

2:30 p.m.

Detroit Opera House

1526 Broadway Street, Detroit

Tickets: $30 adults
$15 children (17 and below)
$50 patron ticket*

Bring the whole family to see the story of a brother and sister who join forces with a sparrow, cat and dog to outwit the evil organ grinder, Brundibár.

This opera was originally performed 55 times by children of the Theresienstadt concentration camp. Holocaust survivor Ela Stein Weissberger played the Cat in that production. Ms. Weissberger will attend each performance and share with audiences her remarkable story. Come hear how art and music inspired her hope for survival.

Patron ticket includes box seat and post-show meet and greet with Ela and the cast.*

Special Appearance! MOTCC is proud to announce a collaboration with the Holocaust Memorial Center (HMC) as our Community Education and Outreach Partner. There will be a program featuring Ms. Weissberger and a live preview of the opera at the HMC on Wednesday, March 12 at 7 p.m.
